During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Dane County Aging Network emailed weekly “news blasts” to their participants in an effort of keeping older adults informed. This is an example of just one of many who featured the Aging Plan Survey.

NewBridge Madison took the extra step and also featured the Aging Plan Survey on the home page of their website!

There are three Senior Centers located in Dane County that choose not to contract with AAA for programs and services for older adults (Madison Senior Center, Monona Senior Center & Verona Senior Center). This doesn't deter us from actively partnering with each other... as this example from Madison Senior Center attests. They tweeted about the Aging Plan Survey!
